PORTLAND MARKETS

Latest Quotations in the Portland Markets.

Complete Market Reports Corrected Each Day Giving the Wholesale Prices of Commodities, Farm Produce and Vegetables.

PORTLAND, May 29.—No less than four commission men made an identical comment this morning: "The berry market has gone to the devil." The remark may not be elegant, but it cannot be denied it is quite forcible; moreover, it comes mighty close to describing the situation on the street this morning.

Berries not only are lower, but dealers had entirely too many. Hood Rivers are not yet up to their established reputation for excellence, but show improvement over last week's production.

Gooseberries are not as plentiful as they were last week, but prices remain unchanged at 6c a pound.

Eggs.—Eggs are steady at quotations, 19c; 20c, with most sales reported at 19c.

Vegetables.—There were three days' shipments of vegetables from California yesterday. Asparagus is quoted higher by some dealers, and supply much short of requirements. A few days of good weather will put the street in better shape.

Neighborhood gardens are sending in stuffs in only limited amount; much more could be readily taken care of.

Poultry.—The tone of the poultry market is decidedly weak. Nearly every dealer talks lower prices, and the prospect is for continued full receipts. No change in quotations is noted this morning, but another day may bring lower figures.

Grain, Produce, Feed.—Wheat—Walla Walla, 71c; Valley, 71c; bluesteam, 70c; red, 70c. Oats—White, 83c; gray, 82c. Barley—Brewing, 82c; feed, 82.75c; rolled, 82.50c.
